Reception and KS1 fruit tasting

In 'Try Something New' week, we really enjoyed using our senses to explore and taste some exotic fruits. Lots of them were new flavours to us! We learnt that trying new things can make us nervous and can be tricky, but it can also build resilience, concentration and we might find new things we love!

We tried…

